IMPORTANT NOTE REGARDING CHATHAM MODERN TAMPING

Pavers with dimpled or textured surfaces have high and low points on the surface which lend a more natural aesthetic appeal to the paver. These pavers are susceptible to surface scuffing when being compacted in place with plate compactors. Therefore, these paver types should always be compacted with a plate compactor that incorporates a protective mat or other medium between the plate compactor and the surface of the paver. These protect mediums include rubber matting, thin carpet, mirafi 500x or cardboard.
